

Bagley Needs Our Help!

Let's all pledge to keep Bagley the school our kids love!

Bagley, like so many Seattle schools, has just been hit with significant budget cuts – totaling $91,000. To continue most of Bagley's current programs, Ms. Kinzer needs at least $15,000 more than the amount the PTA provides her annually. Bagley is able to offer as much as it does – to as many as it does – largely because of the generous donations of time and money from parents like you. These cuts mean we need to ask for help to retain those programs for the 2010 - 11 school year.

If each Bagley family gave $150 we could reach our increased goal for the Giving Campaign. Some families donated at Bagley's Fundraising Party, but not everyone was able to attend. The PTA realizes $150 per family may be out of the question for some. And some parents give to the school in other ways, such as their time. However, others may be able to do more. Larger donations are greatly appreciated and help cover families who are unable to give the full amount. And when you compare it to private school, preschool or even a week at summer camp, it really is a bargain!
